Good to know before you go

Jordan Pass
Buy it online before you travel: it covers Petra, Wadi Rum, Jerash and more than 40 other sites, and, for eligible visitors, waives the tourist visa fee if you stay at least 2 consecutive nights (3 days).

What to bring
Passport valid for at least 6 months, Swimwear, towel and reef-safe sunscreen, Hat and sunglasses, Water shoes for the beach (optional), A light jacket for winter evenings.

Best season
Aqaba is warm all year. October to May is the most pleasant; summers are very hot.

What to wear
Light, modest clothes; shoulders and knees covered at religious sites. Good walking shoes, and a warm layer for desert evenings.

Money
The Jordanian dinar (JOD). Cards are widely accepted in hotels and restaurants; keep some cash for small shops and tips.

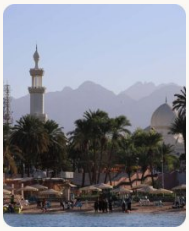

Water
Drink bottled water, and carry 1.5–2 litres on long walking days.

Power & time
230 V, European (C/F) and British (G) sockets. Jordan is on UTC+3 all year.

Local customs
Friday is the weekly holiday. Ask before photographing people; drones need prior permission.

Emergencies
Dial 911 for police, ambulance or fire. Our team is on WhatsApp throughout your trip.

Your guide to the places you will visit

Aqaba
Jordan's only city on the Red Sea: the Mamluk fort, the ruins of the early Islamic city of Ayla, the Arab Revolt flagpole and an easy-going old souk.

- It is warm all year – sun protection is a must.
- Swimwear is for the beach and the pool; dress modestly in town.

The Red Sea reefs
Coral reefs start a few metres from the shore in the Aqaba Marine Park, with colourful fish, soft corals and shipwrecks.

- Use reef-safe sunscreen and never touch or stand on the coral.
- The water is clear and calm most of the year.
